Agnaire.
Double column and all advertisements out of the usual share will be charged fifteen per cent above rates.
Bills for regular advertising will be collected quarterly. Where for a best period than three months taying a divaries will be required.

Regular selvertisements will be entailed to be changed.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

ATTORNEYS AT LAW.

J. H. SNEAD. ATTORNEY AT LAW, Salinz, Kansas.

C. A. HILLER.

ATTORNEY AT LAW., No. 96 Santa Fe Ave.

T. F. CARVER,

ATTORNEY AT LAW. Office on Santa Fe Ave., four deors south of Oter & Bond's, Salina, Kansas.

ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOI- AT LAW, Lincoln Center, Lincoln county, Kansas.

E. W. HODCKINSON: ATT OF NEY AND COUNSELL: It AT LAW. Office with Cap., Wildman, Santa Fe A touce, Salina, Kas.

J. C. MOHLER,
ACTTORNEY AT LAW., Salina, will practice in al centre on the state and in the U.S. Land Office. Special attention given to coll citions.

R. BROWN,
ATTORNET AT LAW, office over Gels' bank, Salina
Well practice in all control Saline and McPherson samiles, and in the U. S. Land Office

ATTORNEYS AT LAW. flice, Santa Fe Avenue, Salina, Kansas. Will affect to any lateness in the District Courts of Saline, El. worth, Ottawa, Lincoln, McParson, Rice, Dickieson, and other countries in Western Kausas.

PHYSICIANS.

J. W. CROWLEY, M. D.,

LATE SURGEON IS MO. VOL. CAV.) Office, No.

J. W. JENNEY, M. D., HOMEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON. Of-see No. 50 Ash St., Salina, Kansas.

HENRY VERNON,

*MYSICLAX, SURGEON AND ACCOUNTER, Lincoln Center, Lincoln county, hansas. Respectfully solicits the patronage of the proude.

PRISICIAN, SUBSECTIAN AND ACCOUNTER, formerly acting Assistant Surgeon in the U.S. Navy, Mississipp Squadron Eight years practice in Salma. Corner of the and Ash streets.

W. C. BOON, M. D., FRINGLAN and SUBJECT Collection of the H. Richest State Stat

DENTIST. DR. R. E. NICKLES,

INSURANCE AGENTS.

BISHOP & NORTON General Lesurance Agents, No. 83 Santa Fe avenue

ABSTRACT OF TITLES. BISHOP & NORTON.

HOTELS.

TRAVELER'S HOUSE, W. TROM, Prormeton. Good stable and good ac-monodations. Minuspells, talka county, Kansas

MECHANICAL.

H. C. STANLEY, CARPENTER, BUILDER AND CONTRACTOR, Shop

House, sign, from a and corruge printer. Markling graining and paper houging done with neathers and dispatch. No. 22 Pitth street, Salma, Kansas.

HOUSE, SIGN, CARRIAGE, GRAINING AND Fresco pointer, Paper hanging &c. Shop on Santa Fe Avenue, wouth of Beebe's hardware store.

LAUCHLIN & FITZCERALD. CARPENTERS AND BUILDERS, Salina Kansas Asspensared to contract for handings of any kind in his or county; also for moving buildings. Shop on 500 street.

NEWS DEPOT.

WHITEHEAD & SEAMAN

REAL ESTATE AGENTS. Mal. JOHN W. BERKS. Maj. JOHN W. BERKS.

BYAI, ESTATE BUSINESS - Kanesas Central Land Agency. Also have foresale all the lands of the Kansas Pacific Railway Company, amounting to over 5, aw, 600 series of the most desirable in Central and
W. Jern kanesas, nine, Mill-sites, Coal Lands, Farans Cattle Ramches and over property in Salina and the menchancing towns, for sale at all times.
The sent for the Kanasas Central Land Journal, a large Railwailman band paper, see what we have for sale and rend all about the great Key stone State of the West.

D. FREEMILLER,

MAPUFACTURER OF BOOTSAND SHOES

Ladies' shore made to order. Invisible patching

G. W. GENTRY, (Successor to L. S. Wild.) DEALERIN

Dry Goods, Groceries & Gen-eral Merch'ndise.

BROOKVILLE - KANSAS. New Lumber Yard.

LUMBER! Rough and plane lumber of all description. Sash, ours, Shingles, Plastering, Lath, Se.,

Constantly on hand. Office and Yard on Santa Fe Ave.

(immediately south of Journal Office ) Wm. BERG.

Saline County Sournal.

VOLUME 4.

SALINA, KANSAS, SEPTEMBER 24, 1874.

NUMBER 33.

SALINA ADVERTISEMENTS.

They say this life is barren, drear and cold;

It is then true, this tale of bitter grief,

Love, Hope and Patience cheer us on our way; Love, Hope and Patience form our spirits' stay; Love, Hope and Patience watch us day by day, And bid the desert bloom with beauty vernat Until the earthly lades in the elemnat. —Frazer's May cains.

MR. PLUNKETT'S MISTAKE.

BY EBEN E. REXFORD.

of an evening, as any dozen women women, where enough really does be-see fit to quite often.

'Red Jacket'' Lager Beer Saloon. Ever the same sad song was sing of old, Ever the same long, weary tale is told, Andto our lips is held the cup of strik; And yet—a little love can sweeten life

BARNECK & DAVIS, Proprietors. Whiskies, Brandies & Wines.

They say our hands may grasp but be destroyed; Youth has but dreams and age an aching void Which Dead-Sea truit long, long ago has coyed. Whose night with wild, tempestuous storms is rife; And yet—a little hope can brighten life. They say we fling ourselves in wild despair Amidst the broken freasures scattered there Waere all is weeked, where all once promised fair, And stab ourselves with sorrow's two-edged knife; And yet—a little patience strengthens life. Lager Beer and Ale 5c a Glass, The Best in the Market.

J. A. NELSON, Brick-Layer & Stone-Mason, Salina, Kansas,

Is prepared to contract for the erection of Brick or Stone Buildings, furnishing all necessary materials if desired, in Saline and adjoining counties. E.P. Work warranted in every case. Lime and Cement on Hand, andfor sate stall times. DODDS & LINDDAHL, Contractors and Builders, (Opposite Saline County Journal Office,) Salina - - Kansas.

We are prepared to do asy work in our line in a Workmanlike Manner and with Dispatch. Orders

COUNTRY SOLICITED. Agent for Sidney Smith & Son's School Furnishing

W. P. THACHER, Proprietor.

The Delmonics Resistrant is the cleanest and best restaurant in Central Kaness. I am constantly receiv-ng fresh supplies of Fruits, Confections, etc.

JOHN GEIS & CO. BANKERS,

Santa Fe Arenue, Salina, Kas. ketts.

CHARLES HAMLIN,

114 SANTA FE AVENUE.

Salina. - - Kansas.

CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VESTINGS, SUITINGS, &c.

Loan Agents.

SALINA, KANSAS.

PACIFIC HOUSE,

JEFFRIES & POSTLEWAIT, Proprieto

OPPOSITE THE COURT HOUSE.

SALINA, - KANSAS.

Free 'Bus to and from all Trains.

The Pacific House is a new building and contains the conveniences of a first class hotel. A spacious sample roum has been equaled and arranged for the use of traveler? It is located nearly opposite the constitutioning, where good board can be obtained at all times with or without rooms. Satisfaction graranteed.

George Krueger,

SHOP:

BALK BILLIARD TABLES,

1 nm also sole agent at this place for the celebrated

South of Baptist church, on Ninth street, which were purchased in New York, Paradialphia and bounded of the gold directly opposite the most fashinable and best sivies.

Just as he got directly opposite the most fashinable and best sivies.

Just as he got directly opposite the most fashinable and best sivies.

Just as he got directly opposite the most fashinable and best sivies.

Just as he got directly opposite the most fashinable and best sivies.

Just as he got directly opposite the most fashinable and best sivies.

Just as he got directly opposite the most fashinable and best sivies.

Just as he got directly opposite the most fashinable and best sivies.

Just as he got directly opposite the most fashinable and best sivies.

Just as he got directly opposite the most fashinable and best sivies.

Just as he got directly opposite the most fashinable and best sivies.

Just as he got directly opposite the most fashinable and best sivies.

Just as he got directly opposite the most fashinable and best sivies.

Just as he got directly opposite the most fashinable and best sivies. kett would not have believed it if any- the hull mess of ye." rousing kiss, for which he got his ears crawl through a very small hole. Wight & Carroll, must be so.

REAL ESTATE, INSURANCE Office over John Geis & Co.'s Bank, body ought to tell her of it." hadn't heard about the scandalous affair man a kissin' me that hadn't any bisness of Mr. Marsh making love to the hired to."

girl in his wife's absence. "I allus thought he wasn't just what meekly; "I thought-"

ARCHITECT and BUILDER.

in the house in six months." Plans and Specifications Drawn "I wonder et she'd leave him if she "Nor I, nuther," responded Mrs. Thompson. "she'll probably go back to her folks. I wonder what'd be done with the baby? She'd keep it, most likely, though he might set up to be con-SENATE."

I have lately refitted The Squate and provided it with epen after no had promised to pay it, and twenty seconds, and 300 yards in best ever held in the State, and its work an' one day he up an' dunned Josi right and twelve seconds, winning an' one day he up an' dunned Josi right and ticket worthy of the high character afore a hull lot o' men, an' had the impidence to say that he'd sent word to him a pair of earrings in the other. Wines, Liquors and Cigars.

half a dozen times by the boys that he wanted it. What of he had? Josi's said he didn't remember hearing anything he didn't remember hearing anything about it, an' it made him hoppin' mad, about two months ago, there were liv.

Do the fifty-eighth anaiversary of the his church, his lectures, and his news he didn't remember hearing anything about two months ago, there were liv.

Do the fifty-eighth anaiversary of the wanted it. What of he had? Josi's said his church, his lectures, and his news he didn't remember hearing anything about two months ago, there were liv.

Do the fifty-eighth anaiversary of the wanted it. What of he had? Josi's said his church, his lectures, and his news had a slight change of the ideas of the about it, an' it made him hoppin' mad, about two months ago, there were liv. half a dozen times by the boys that he "Should a thought it would ha' made him mad," said Mrs. Thompson.

In a week the whole neighborhood was in a fever of excitement. You could have beard a dozen different stories.

One day Mrs. Thompson had a quiltheld that she ought to be too indepenof the world," to quote Deacon Snod-grass of "our town," that all the mis-chief in the neighborhood is set affoat might be in better business than talkin a flirt by the women. Now I don't believe about their neighbors," the circumstance this. I know better. I'm ene of the which had given rise to this scandalous stronger sex, but I don't like to see my state of affairs, and felt himself to be brothers priding themselves on a supe- quite a hero-when all at once came a riority which they don't possess. If knock at the door and, on Mr. Thompanybody likes gossip the men do, and I son's opening it, in came Mr. and Mrs.

have heard as much serndal retailed Marsh and Mary Ann Brown! A bomb-shell—the simile isn't original among a group of tour or five of them, -would have caused no greater excitecould have disposed of in the same ment and dismay if it had dropped length of time. And because I've grown among them. Mr. Thompson's efforts were signal failures. Mr. Marsh couldn't mistake Mr. Plunkett made, and show before him. you that men can get up a disturbance if they only see fit to do so. And if you lived in "our town" you'd find that they to sit down. I knew that most of the England. The court and especially the upon his nose. The chase was long, and "Colonel," and had him transported by gossips and scandal-mongers of the "There goes John Marsh and his wife," said Mr. Plankett one Saturday morning. "She's got her little girl with her. of calling to make a little explanation, above them. Lord Bute, the Prime alas! it was not there. All of which Highness, he would be dealt with accor-I guess she is going over to her mother's to stay over Sunday." "Dike enough," answered Mrs. Plun-kett from the kitches, where she was enname has been mixed up with some disged in the laudable business of ecrubbing the face of one of the young Pluuthey pretended to be picking currents, face. but Mr. Plunkett hardly felt prepared to state that pulling a woman's sun-bonnet

Miss Mary Ann Brown. "You never see King was to be married to the Mecklenover her face and holding it together any such thing. I went home that very burg Princess; and she took pen in that it would be utterly impossible, any host, or generous entertainer, or polish while she was trying to get away, was mornin', and took Miss Marsh's little hand, and wrote to Lady Susan about der these circumstances, to assume that ed conversationalist. With one of the the best method of pursuing that branch of domestic business, and that was what don't come back till the matter. I shall take care, she majesty of aspect and fearlessness of sweetest, brightest women in the world writes, to show that I am not mortified gaze which is currently believed to be for a wife, his home is that of a cultured Has on hand, and is constantly reciving, alarge and well scheduled shock of And that wrsn't all Mr. Pidakett saw, a purty piece o' busness if a man can't Luckily for me, I did not leve him, and summit just as the leanest and fiercest standing the prevailing idea of his in-Just as he got directly opposite the kiss his own wife 'thout the hull neigh- only liked. Nor did the title weigh any- of the dogs snapped viciously at his temperance. He believes in and pracbody had told him of it, but he had to "But I thought 'twas you, any way," believe his own eyes—gave her a good said Mr. Plunkett, looking as if he could like a fool, as I shall for baving gone so frame of mind, a female voice was heard.

boxed; "but." said Mr. Plunkett o his "Thought 'twas me!" exclaimed Miss having so often gone out in the field to worthy helpmeet that night, whenhe re- Brown, scornfully. "What bisness had make hay at the King. 'But,' she prolated the shocking story of Mr. Marsh's you to tell that it was me if you didn't ceeds, 'I don't much care. If he were disgraceful conduct, "she didn't act as if know? I wish to gracious I could have to change his mind again (which can't you took up for slander, every one of ye. be, though) and not give a very, very "No, of course not," said Mrs. Pian- It'd learn you to mind your own bisness good reason for his conduct, I would not kett, indignantly. "The good for noth- next time. You've told lies enough in have him.' They met a week after, ing creature! I'll warrant she'd catch it the last week to sink a hull neighbor-if Mrs. Marsh was to hear about her car-hood. Every one that's been to Mr. rying on when she's out of sight. Some- Marsh's, has told some new story you'd ody ought to tell her of it."

got started. I never was so mad in my and Lady Sarah, as she had promised, the fig-leaves on the place."

In less than a week there wasn't a life—never! I'd just like to have Mr. was very cool and dignified. dozen persons in Grantly Corners who Plunkett or any other man say he see a

Mary Ann Brown, neither," said Mrs. medile, and poke, and pry, an' they jest she had to be led out, for she too was in the immerging of a dust on the Eng. mond incorred a debt of honor to Lord Jones; she's got an impident, sassy way as lieves stretch the truth as not, if they sightless. This blind old woman was lish and French coasts, and the boring of Cardogan, which he was anabla to pay, with her. But Miss Marsh needn't a had a hired girl then. She might adone her feel tickled over some o' yer work I miss Sarah Lennox.—The Galaxy for Septem. Of the result of the enterprise, own work, as you an' I do, Miss Thomp- my guess. But I jest want you, I don't ber. That's what I say," responded Mrs. man a kissin' me! Jest try it, if you Thompson. "She ain't no better to think's best. I'll make you prove it or

Rural New Yorker.

an' it run along and run along quite a spell after he had promised to pay it, an' one day he up an' dunned Josi right one minute and twelve seconds, winning

A Royal Remance.

then the gossip waxed hetter than ever. me.' The next time Lady Sarah was bestrode his gallant cob and arged him distinguished consideration. He also Mrs. Jones was debating with Mrs. in court, the King led her to a window, Plunkett as to whether Mrs. Marsh and inquired, 'Has your friend told you After a desperate struggle the other and Dessau, and then proceeded to tired of hearing the blame all laid to the to be polite and ask after their health House, and that Lady Sarah was sure to the truant heast in sight. It must have petty courts he had visited, and also a long, I'm going to tell you about the help laughing at the panie-stricken faces and raking hay like another Mand Mul-"No, thank you," he said, declining court, and Fox was evidently confident venerable plug hat pulled over his eyes, paid the despoiled jewier for his water,

The truth is, the girl was engaged in above an hour or two, believe. often for nothing.' She probably meant lenburg marriage was arranged. Poor marriage of George III., a charity ser. The project to construct a tunnel bemen was preached by the Dean of Can- tween France and England is assuming horses of the Seventh cavalry, are fa-"I was mistaken," said Mr. Plunkett, terbury in behalf of an infirmary for a practical phase. The capitalists and most all over the states, while he has treatment of diseases of the eye, which engineers embarked in this gigantic end the reputation of being the best approxihe'd orter be," said Mrs. Thompson, taking a pinch of snuff by way of emphathought," retorted the irate damsel. sis. "I do pity Miss Marsh. Poor innocent critter! It'd nigh about kill her nocent critter! It'd nigh about kill her is she was to find out about her husband's actions."

In the folks in this neighborhood could actions."

It the folks in this neighborhood could be a blessin' to
hearers was an aged woman, who wep:

It the folks in this neighborhood could
be a blessin' to
hearers was an aged woman, who wep:

It the folks in this neighborhood could
be a blessin' to
hearers was an aged woman, who wep:

It the folks in this neighborhood could
be a blessin' to hearers was an aged woman, who wep: "An' I never did like the looks o' that 'em; but they couldn't. They've got to bitterly. At the close of the service tions. The subject in question consists. At the gaming table the Duke of Rich

That Terrible Bolt.

residence, is near Holland House, where Lady Sarah Lennox, a beautiful girl of fitteen was residence with her cities. The One would have told you that Mr. and fifteen, was residing with her sister. The eminent abilities, and a gentleman of vered of all observers. The countenance Mrs. Marsh were going to part. Another Prince of Wales, soon to be George III., most lovable character, tells at his own which the Dake of Brunswick gave him that she had applied for a divorce. And fell in love with her, and soon after his expense, and with the keenest gusto, rendered it easy for the New York share you would have heard fearful tales of accension and before his coronation as a story which we think too good to lose, per to obtain credit everywhere, and his cruelty to his poor wife, and of her good as asked her, in his awkward, stupthis cruelty to his poor wife, and of her good as asked her, in his awkward, stupthis cruelty to his poor wife, and of her good as asked her, in his awkward, stupthis cruelty to his poor wife, and of her good as asked her, in his awkward, stupthis cruelty to his poor wife, and of her good as asked her, in his awkward, stupthis cruelty to his poor wife, and of her good as asked her, in his awkward, stupthis cruelty to his poor wife, and of her good as asked her, in his awkward, stupthis cruelty to his poor wife, and of her good as asked her, in his awkward, stupthis cruelty to his poor wife, and of her good as asked her, in his awkward, stupthis cruelty to his poor wife, and of her good as asked her, in his awkward, stupthis cruelty to his poor wife, and of her good as asked her, in his awkward, stupthis cruelty to his poor wife, and of her good as asked her, in his awkward, stupthis cruelty to his poor wife, and of her good as asked her, in his awkward, stupthis cruelty to his poor wife, and of her good as asked her, in his awkward, stupthis cruelty to his poor wife, and of her good as asked her, in his awkward, stupthis cruelty to his poor wife, and of her good as asked her, in his awkward, stupthis cruelty to his poor wife, and of her good as asked her, in his awkward, stupthis cruelty to his poor wife, and of this he availed himself to the fullthis cruelty to his poor wife, and of this he availed himself to the fullthis cruelty to his poor wife, and of this he availed himself to the fullthis cruelty to his poor wife, and of this he availed himself to the fullthis cruelty to his poor wife, and of this he availed himself to the fullthis cruelty to his poor wife, and of this he availed himself to the fullthis cruelty to his poor wife, and of this he availed himself to the fullthis cruelty to his poor wife, and of this he availed himself to the fullthis cruelty to his poor wife, and o affair approaching its present crisis for a Susan Strangways, one side, and asked sundown, to a creek which was so deep exchange, one of which was discounted long time, but "hadn't said anything her when she meant to leave town. She about it." her when she meant to leave town. She as to necessitate a swimming feat. The by the Duke's own banker, at the written replied that she intended to stay for the Judge being a man of vigorous and in ten request of the Duke lord marshal. coronation. He said that this would not vineible determination, no sooner real From Brunswick Fisher proceeded to ing, and all the gossips in the neighbor-hood were there, and a "jolly good no coronation until there was a queen; dismounted, undressed himself with Dake of Brunswick had given him time" they had over the new scandal. In the scandal in the evening the men came to tea, and fittest person for it. Tell her so for high plug hat and a pair of spectacles, consequence, likewess treated him with ought to accept his support of the child of my conversation with her? 'Yes, side was gained, and the Judge again Weimer, but several American residents after they separated or not. Mr. Jones sir,' was the answer. 'And what do you dismounting, this time with a profound of that famous little city, expressed think of it?' 'Nothing, sir.' "Noth- sigh of relief, was about to resome his some doubts concerning "Calonel It has come to the popular belief among most people of this day and age argument in a very convincing and logihis side and trotted slowly down the his career was brought to an abrupt a flirtation with a rather disreputable Lord Newbattle. She soon afterward but to trot after him; and thereupon from a jewler a costly watch, set with went into the country, fell from her there ensued one of the most remarkable three large diamonds. - This watch, horse, and fractured her leg, and had a and picturesque chases ever known in Fsher had sold at Anhalt for less than quarrel with Lord Newbattle. The history or tradition. The horse appear one-fourth of its real value. In conse-King was most assiduous in his inquiries od to have no motive save that of keep quence, he who had associated with after her; and when she came back to ling a certain distance ahead of the Judge, sovereign princes, and had been direct Hollnad House it was with at least a and of finding some comfortable barn and wined by them, was taken in trons strong liking for George. It was ob yard where he might refresh himself back to the city where he had but recentserved also that every fine morning he was wont to ride along a quiet land whatever may have been his ambitions, trunk were found various letters from which skirted the grounds of Holland be on the lawn picturesquely dressed, been a cheerful and invigorating exper of valuable articles which he unquestion ier. This courtship became the talk at along that smooth and sandy road, his end to the scandal, the Duke Brunswick the proffered chair. "We won't stop that his sister-in-law was to be Queen of and his spectacles bobbing up and down had the letters taken away from the personages of the blood royal, took the moisture of great exertion would a gendarme to Hamburg, with the stern neighborhood would be here [great sen- alarm at the prospect that one of rank gather on his brow, and then, when he notification that, in case he should ever which never would have been made it it Minister, sent a secret emissary to look had the effect of impressing the Judge ding to law. had not been for Miss Brown, whose out for a queen among the princely fam- with his very peculiar and unfortunate ilies of the continent. The report was situation, and imparting renewed play

Christian way. [More sensation.] It burg-Strelitz. What means were used preserving a steady relative distance, of the world-that part which does not has been told all over town that Mr. to induce George to consent to abandon until just as the setting sun was redden- know him-has a singularly wrong idea. That afternoon, when Mr. Plunkett saw me kissing our hired girl, the lovely Sarah and ask the hand of was going down to the postoffice, he saw Mr. Plunkett, I ke the low-principled, the ugly Charlotte, is not certainly Judge's manly form with gold, the horse kered, swearing, ranting, drinking toper, sence as he seemed to be to this one; Mr. Plankett, iaintly, with a very red Sarah was awakened from her haymak- Judge was scampering furiously after industrial and order ics, to whom he ing and dreams of a crown by reports his horse and wardrobe, there issued gave his military directions while Lo when 'twas his own wife he kissed. It's manner, he shall have it, I promise him. gave one wild bound and reached its Ges. Custer does not drank, notwith-

The the Judge, realizing the absurdity of the as an example rather than an object of thing I am most angry at is looking so situation, had regained his customary regret. ealling from the house :

"Who's there?" "A tellow creature in distress, madam." "Whereare you?" "On the gate-post," said the Judge eginning to enjoy the joke.

"What can I do for you?"
It was too much. The Judge's old amor and quizzical love of merriment when everybody knew that the Meckdoubt. The soal of the enterprise, with daughter of Lord Cardogan. The boy MM. Michel Chevaller, Leon Say, and was sent for from school and the girl It has been stated that a long list of Roths, ild, is M. Lavalley, an engineer, from the nursery; a elergyman was in work. But then Miss Marsh, when she was a girl, always felt her importance considerable, and she's getting to be a considerable, and she's getting to be a Brown's advice," said Mr. Marsh. all the weekly papers of the State and canal, and without whom that gigantic ing to say; the boy cried out: "They kind of stuck up, in my opinion. She don't associate with us common folks much. I don't remember as she's been much. I don't remember as she's been in the house in six months."

The Tunnel Between France and England.

Brown's advice, said Mr. Marsh. all the weekly papers of the State and canal, and without whom that gigands array are not going to marry me to enterprise could not have been accommon folks with us common folks with us common folks with their action in relation to the State tick. I and had before you tell before you tell it. And now good evening," and the trio bowed them not come to hand this week, and had the property of the work at 150,000,000 of trance; the good evening," and the trio bowed them. selves out of as discomfited a group as not received the news in time to express the English engineers think it will bridgeroom vas packed off with his tutor an opinion last week. So far as we amount to 250,000,000. He suggests to make the grand tour, and the bride to order, buildings measured up and computed, map constructed, Jub was described. The full ticket except the Wyan- level declare."

were to find it out? said Mrs. Jones "I was sent back to her mather. Lord know, all the Republican papers hoist that this work should be done partly by was sent back to her mather. Lord wouldn't live with him another minnit, about making such mistakes now, but he full ticket except the Wyan- I declare." hasn't got over his love for gossip. He's dotte Gazette Manhattan Nationalist to induce the two countries to press on years, after which he returned to Lonas bad as other men in that respect. - and Woodson County Post; they this undertaking energetically there don, a well-educated, handsome young leave off the name of Gov. Os should be a bonus for the one which man, but in no haste to meet his wife born. The Republician darly journals, works the fastest. The 4,000,000 frames whom he had never seen except upon Swimming matches between ladies are the latest New York sensations.

Lawrence Journal and Topeka Common nearly all, it is said, subscribed. The So be tarried in London to amuse home trary, an' take it out o' her hands. It's in them Marshes to be awful mean of they set about it."

"You're right there, Miss Thompson," said Mrs. Jones, feelingly. "My man, he borrowed some corn of Mr. Marsh, he borrowed some corn of Mr. Marsh, an' it run along and run along quite a spell after be had promised to regard to the same sum. M. Ferdinand and twenty seconds. and 300 years in the convention as one of the Duval offers 50.008 for the city of Paris.

Lawrence Journal and Topeka Common the latest New York sensations. The French railway du Nord will advance one million, the two companies from lady in one of the bors. "Who is that?" for Govenor, but will support the ticket. The Lawrence Journal enlogizes the Convention highly, and approves of the same sum. M. Ferdinand was the reply, "not to know the total" of the town of the town

Beecher's regular annual income from strait many will contribute a lager or spot, and fived long and happily teach smaller sum to the necessary capital. It er; and when the husband shed she also

A Bogus American Colonel. A New York sharper, styling himself

as Col. Fisher, U. S. A., has operated for sometime past with extrordinary success at several petty courts in Central Germany by playing on the ignorance of the little despots and on their fondness for gorgeous uniform. Endowed with a commanding presence, "Colonel" Fisher appeard three months ago at Branswick, and, dressed in blue, fancy uniform, with enormous epaulets on his shoulders, and a plumed hat on his head, solicited an audience from the reiging Duke. The latter received the "Colonel" at once, and was so charmed with the distinguished foreigner that he invited him to dinner, and requested Our old friend, Judge Tom Farrar, his presence next day at review of the close. A detective from Branswick Of course, the Judge had no recourse arrested him on charge of having stolen-graceful reports which you worthy peo-ple have circulated in an eminently young princess Charlotte of Mecklen-So the two bowled pleasantly along. General Caster, and one of whom most Transact a general Banking business. Draw deaths of the Cutted States and Error of the United tices total abstinence. The good tem-When the aproar had subsided, and perance teachers of the day can use him

Gelerat Custer.

> General Caster does not swear. In his constant companionship for more than a week, under cocumitances, too, that have been unusually trying, I have not heard an eath from his lipe; and what is more he does not allow prefanity among his enhandingles.

But what, some will ask, are his view? His soldiers will tell you he has none, unless an almost inordings love for the "Call off these dogs, and bring me all brute creation may be called each, for Gen. Custor has the best dogs and also heat horses he can produce within the limits of search. His leash of hounds to and it was agreed that his son, a lad Of the result of the enterprise, says lifteen, who bore the title of Earl of the Journal de Calais, there can be no March, should marry a still younger the frotbills.

A flusband Falls in Lote with His Wife.

I tell you, to have him take him right ing fifty-nine men whose names are author of Norwood, the Star papers, English parliament on subjects of monopthere in public and afore folks. He'd still on the army list, who were com- Lectures to Young Men, Yale Lectures, oly and competition to give in five years prosching industry in California. They CINCINNATI BEER. have paid him when he got around to inissioned officers under Wellington in Fruits, Flowers, and Farming, and the direct communication between Paris are said to grove very required to inissioned officers under